

Alice Coltrane

- 1937 – 2007
(born in Detroit, Michigan, USA; died in Los Angeles, California, USA)
- Born Alice McLeod
- Grew up in a musical family and began studying classical piano at the age of seven
 - Became a really innovative jazz musician
 - Primarily played the piano, but also played the harp and the organ
- Purchased a pedal harp in 1968 and was possibly self-taught on the instrument
 - Recorded many albums and most of these featured her playing the harp alongside her other instruments
 - Was married to the famous jazz saxophonist John Coltrane
- Had a strong interest in Eastern religions, both musically and in her life outside of music

HarpInsideOut.com